Electrical Appliances in Germany (TRANSFORMERS)

1. PURPOSE: To provide current information on the use of electrical appliances in Germany for soldiers being assigned to the Army in Europe, and their family members.

2. ISSUE:

- a. The electric current in Europe is 220 volts, 50 cycles compared to 110 volts, 60 cycles in the United States. You must use a transformer when using 110 volts, 60 cycle's appliances here in Germany.
- b. Some appliances will not operate on European current. For example clocks operate the 5/6th the normal speed. This means they lose ten minutes every hour.
- c. Other motor-driven appliances operate satisfactory, although not at their best at 5/6th the normal speed. These appliances include vacuum cleaners, electric razors, egg beaters and blenders.
- d. Most appliances with heating elements (toasters and irons) operate satisfactory with a transformer. However, the transformers are inconvenient, particularly in larger sizes. They are heavy, consume a lot of electricity, and may trip circuit breakers. Therefore, you may find it easier not to use appliances, such as coffee-maker, toasters, hair dryers, or irons which usually require a large transformer. However, these appliances can be purchased in Europe at the military exchanges, thrift shops, German retailers and yard sales.
- e. A very important rule of thumb is to ensure the polarity is correct before connecting your appliance to a transformer. A polarity tester can be purchased at your local AAFES for under $10.
- f. A few general guidelines for lamps small appliances are listed below.
 1. Lamps: Floor, desk and table lamps that use incandescent bulbs can be used by changing the 110 volt to 220 volt bulb and adding an inexpensive adapter plug to match the German outlet (220 volt bulbs and adapters are available at military exchanges).
 2. Televisions: American model TV's (NTSC) can only pick up Armed Forces Network (AFN) television broadcasts and cannot receive European (PAL) stations. Most government housing areas receive AFN broadcasts. You should ask your sponsor or housing office representative about AFN reception. Dual voltage, multi-systems television sets can receive broadcasts from both German and American stations. These can be purchased at military exchanges.
 3. Video Recorders: Videos can record AFN broadcasts, but the clock timer does not operate properly. American movies can be rented through AAFES stores. Only special designed videos recorders (multi-system) are equipped to receive German TV signals. Multi-system videos recorders can be purchased at AAFES stores.
 4. Home Computers: These operate properly with a transformer. Ensure the polarity is correct or you will burn up your computer. Best advice is to consult your AAFES computer representative for specifics prior to setting up your computer.
 5. Radios, Stereos, Turntables, and Tape Decks: Radios and stereo equipment work satisfactorily with transformers and receive both AFN broadcasts and European stations. Turntables and tape decks can also be modified to run at proper speed.
 6. Microwave Ovens: As a general rule, microwave ovens for use with 60 cycle power cannot be used at 50 cycles and will not operate properly with a transformer. 60 cycle microwave ovens (110 volt 50/60 cycle) may be damaged by operation on 50 cycle power. Special microwave ovens which can be used in Europe and converted for use in the US are available at military exchange.

g. The size transformer you need: Before plugging an appliance into a transformer, make sure you know its power rating. The power rating of electrical appliances is indicated in "watts" or in the case of large power-consuming units, "kilowatt". (1 kilowatt equal 1000 watts). On some appliances "amperes" are used instead of watts. To determine the power rating in "watts", multiply the number of amperes by the voltage of the appliance. For example, if you have an appliance marked 3 amperes, 110 volts; it has a power rating of 330 watts ($3 \times 110 = 330$).

h. Each type of transformer is designed to carry a specific "load" or number of watts. Its "load" or wattage rating must never be exceeded.

1. Don't ever attach an appliance which requires more wattage than the rating of your transformers. When attaching a combination of appliances, the total wattage rating must not exceed the rating of the transformer. For example, a toaster drawing 1100 watts should not be used at the same time as a waffle iron drawing 1100 watts. The total of such a combination would exceed the rating of the 1600 watt transformer by 600 watts. Your transformer would burn out.
2. Don't purchase a transformer with exposed winding or wiring. Transformers are available at AAFES and the thrift shop.
3. Don't use a transformer in a damp or wet place. Transformer should always be kept dry and well ventilated.
4. Don't handle or move a transformer when it is plugged into a socket. Be sure you first disconnect the transformer. A 1600 watt transformer should never be used in an ungrounded socket or with an ungrounded plug. The 1600 watt transformers in military exchanges are equipped with grounded plugs (called SCHUCCO" plug).
5. Transformers should never be handled when your hands or feet are wet.
6. Transformers will generate a certain amount of heat when in use. This is not detrimental unless the transformer feels hot to the touch.
7. Overheating may be caused by a defective electrical appliance which can burn out a transformer completely. Inspection will reveal whether the fault lies in the appliance or the transformer. Both should be inspected by a competent electrician.
8. Most military exchanges stock transformers with the following rating:
 - a. 75 watts – For use with small radios, phonographs, tape recorder, heating pads, sewing machines.
 - b. 300 watts – For use with large radios, phonographs, tape recorder, heating pads, sewing machines, projectors, electric blankets, small and medium fans, warming plates, and television sets.
 - c. 500 watts – For use with floor polishers, small refrigerators, hair dryers, and blenders.
 - d. 750 watts – For use with large projectors, small irons, percolators, coffee makers, and vacuum cleaners.
 - e. 1000 watts – For use with small heaters, large percolators, coffee makers.
 - f. 1600 & 2000 watts – For use with toasters, roasters, broilers, cookers, fryers, frying pans, grills hot plates, medium heaters, irons, and motor-driven appliances.

FAQs ON PHONE CONTRACTS

by Joerg C. Modellmög

Recently an increasing number of my clients have sought legal advice on issues surrounding their cell phone contracts, because their expectations were not in line with the terms and conditions applicable to the cell phone contracts they had signed. To enable you to make a better-informed decision before entering into a cell phone contract, let's look at five of the most common areas of misunderstanding:

(1) How long does a 24-month contract run?

If you think it lasts two years, just covering your tour in Germany, you might have made an expensive mistake. The 24-month period does not refer to the length of the contract but to the period during which the contract cannot be terminated. The contract itself runs for an indefinite period of time, for all cell phone contracts contain an automatic renewal clause, extending the contract for one year and thereafter for another year and so on, once the first 24 months have passed.

(2) What do I need to do to stop an automatic renewal of the contract?

If your guess is that you just need to tell them so, you are gambling. Your desire to prevent an automatic renewal needs to be expressed in writing to the cell carrier no later than three months BEFORE the contract is up for renewal. You could ask for the automatic renewal to be blocked right after you signed the contract. If you wait until the day on which the contract is up for renewal, you are too late and on the hook for another 12-month period.

(3) What happens if I lose or break my phone?

The cruel truth: too bad for you, as you have a 24-month contract (with an automatic renewal clause). The company will issue a replacement SIM card for a fee. However, the SIM card and the phone are two separate items. The latter is often merely subsidized, depending on the contract, but losing or breaking the phone does not entitle you to a new one and provides no ground for an early termination or discontinuance of your 24-month contract (with automatic renewal clause).

(4) Is an online bill a good idea?

The answer depends on your personal situation. How good is your German? Chances are that the carrier's website is all in German. Set-up, registration, and/or modifications via the website will be impossible unless you have a basic idea of what you need to do. Often the companies charge an additional fee for mailing a hard copy of the bill to you. If you wish to receive a bill in the regular mail, make sure your mailing address is correctly displayed on the contract; a letter addressed to SPC John Doe, Kleber Kaserne, Kaiserslautern, will not find its way to you.

(5) Do I have a right to terminate the contract with "military orders"?

The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) is a US law that does not apply to German contracts. Absent such a statutory right to terminate cell phone contracts upon a PCS move, the issue is left to the individual phone service carriers and the contracts concluded with them. The shop representatives never put their eloquent verbal sales statements into writing, making it next to impossible to prove them. They often simply claim to have used a lot of vague language like "may," "might," and "could," because, contrary to any allegations, the general terms and conditions of the cell phone contract do NOT provide for an extraordinary termination right in case of presentation of military orders. Consequently, cell phone companies generally offer to dissolve the contract in consideration for a lump sum payment, based on the remaining monthly basic fees still owed under the contract up to the next ordinary termination period.

Advice and assistance on any of the matters discussed above is available by making an appointment to speak with a German Attorney-Advisor. Call DSN 483-8848 or civilian 0631-411-8848 for an appointment.

German Kindergarten Information

German Kindergartens serve children ages 2-6 and are varied in their policies. Priority for spaces are for citizens of the EU in many of the kindergartens. Some programs having waiting lists, so please take that into consideration when looking for care. If spaces are available, they will probably accept your child right away. Some do not allow foreigners in their programs.

There is no single listing of kindergartens as almost every village has one. Some are run by the church and others through the local city government. As you decide on potential locations to live, you can begin to inquire about the local kindergartens. Please check directly with your Rathaus or Verbandsgemeindeverwaltung ("City Hall") for your village to check if there are any spots available at your local German Kindergarten.

There are Waldkindergartens, "Forest Kindergartens" in some villages. Children are primarily outdoors.

<http://www.edutopia.org/early-childhood-outdoor-education-waldkindergarten>

In Kaiserslautern, there are two: Waldkindergarten Kaiserslautern e.V and Waldkindergarten e.V.

Please see this website for further information on Kindergarten in Kaiserslautern City:

https://www.kaiserslautern.de/sozial_leben/soziales_und_gesellschaft/familien/kinderbetreuung/index.html.de

Once you know where you will live, it will be much easier to define what your choices are especially with regard to German Kindergartens.

GERMAN SCHOOL INFORMATION

In general, to enroll, for Elementary School (Grundschule grades 1-4), you will need to visit the school which serves the area you live. Administrators can request a basic knowledge of the German language, however it is not mandatory. Admission will have to be discussed with the administration of the school, who usually requests approval from the German Authorities.

Just like in the US, your residence determines where your child will go to school. Before starting school, the children will need to be screened by a German doctor at the Health Department correlating to the school they are zoned for.

Elementary Schools in Germany service grades 1-4. After 4th grade, the German school system splits, based on your child's academic abilities. For more information, please talk to your village's elementary school or Rathaus (City Hall).

German schools often start around 0800, but let out earlier in the afternoon. Elementary schools usually end between 1215 and 1315. Students are required to bring a snack/bag lunch to eat during recess around 1000. In general, there is no option to purchase food or drinks at the schools and there are no water foundations.

Keep in mind, the German School System may follow different recess schedules. They will have to attend school on several US Holidays (Veterans Day, Thanksgiving, etc), but will be out on Germany Holidays.

The German Public school system is free of charge, with the exception of required books and materials, which need to be purchased by the parents. Some schools may offer for students to rent books for a reasonable fee.

Students stay in a "Klassenverband" all through Elementary School, meaning they remain with the same classmates for the entire four years of Elementary School. They often keep the same homeroom teacher throughout the entire time as well, but will still be taught by other teachers in classes like PE or Music, for example.

Homeschooling in Germany

"In 2008, the Ministeriums für Bildung, Wissenschaft, Weiterbildung und Kultur advised that it was the position of the State of Rheinland-Pfalz that the mandatory schooling provisions in German Law (that essentially prohibits home schooling) does not apply to US personnel stationed in Germany who are covered by the NATO Status of Forces Agreement. In 2014, we re-confirmed with the Ministeriums für Bildung, Wissenschaft, Weiterbildung und Kultur that this was their official position. However, the 86 Airlift Wing takes no position on the application of the mandatory German schooling law to US personnel and recommends that anyone wishing to home school their child(ren) consider discussing the matter with a private German attorney."

Youth Sponsorship

Youth Sponsorship programs are available at all Army installations. The purpose of the sponsorship program is to alleviate stress associated with transitions. This program gives youth the opportunity to assist their peers by providing school and community information.

Students who are interested in being sponsors receive training. When incoming youth request a sponsor, they are paired up with another youth who has similar interests. The two youth staying in touch until the new youth arrive.

This program is a win-win situation for both students as it is rewarding for the youth sponsor and the new youth has an acquaintance prior to arrive.

If your youth is interested in having a youth sponsor, prior to arriving in the Kaiserslautern Military Community, please visit <https://kaiserslautern.armymwr.com/programs/school-liaison-officer-slo> to complete a youth sponsor request.

You may also reach out to the School Liaison Officer by emailing usarmy.rheinland-pfalz.id-europe.mbx.dfmwr-slo@mail.mil

The Department of Defense has established 11 schools within the Kaiserslautern Military Community to meet the educational needs of children from Kindergarten through 12th Grade.

The school your child attends is determined using the same method as in the United States; by physical home address, not the parent's workplace address.

Parents may request an exception to the feeder zone policy. This request can be made at the school that they are zoned for. Requests require signatures from both the losing and gaining school principals. The final decision is made by the Community Superintendent.

It is important for parents to understand if an exception to feeder zone policy is approved, school bus transportation will not be provided outside of designated school feeder zones.
